First Flight of Jianjiao-7P

The ministry of Aviation and Space developed Jianjiao-7P aircraft in workshop production.

Our country's newest developed Jianjiao-7P advanced fighter-trainer aircraft.
